James W. Crosby – CBCC-KA

Retired Police Lieutenant (Jacksonville Sheriff's Office, Jacksonville, FL), former Animal Control Division Manager, and professional dog trainer, James W. Crosby has invaluable experience and extensive insight to bring to the problem of dog attacks and dangerous dog issues. Jim consults with Animal Control and Law Enforcement Authorities on serious and fatal dog attacks, combining crime scene investigation, detailed interviews and dog evaluation to give a detailed behavioral analysis of the incidents.

Why dogs attack, the investigations surrounding fatal dog bites, and the need for behavior-based Dangerous Dog laws that apply equally for all breeds, rather than appearance-based laws that discriminate. Breed Specific Legislation is also discussed.
